edition comes to celebrate the courage and free spirit, values that define Purcari Winery ever since its foundation in 1827", says Victor Bostan, CEO of the Moldovan winery.

With a rich, velvety taste, Freedom Blend draws on the strengths of the three indigenous grapes, harmoniously united in one bottle. Rara Neagra gives it a refined, fruity nose, Saperavi a dark ruby color, while Bastardo, a Crimean grape, rounds it up, for a structured, smooth body.

It is noteworthy, that on January 21, 2015, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine, Pavlo Klimkin, presented a bottle of Purcari Freedom Blend to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Germany Frank-Walter Steinmeier, during the Normandy Four talks in Berlin. "I offered to the host of this event, Frank Steinmeier, an unique wine – the freedom wine. Moldovan, Ukrainian and Georgian grapes. We'll treat all participants. To freedom!", Minister Klimkin tweeted to his over 50,000 followers.

Lenna Koszarny, Founding Partner and CEO of Horizon Capital commented: "Purcari wines continue to be a true standard-setter for the Moldovan wine industry. The winery has managed to fully diversify from relying primarily on the Russian market to broaden their exports to over 25 countries, including Romania, Poland, the Baltics, US, Korea and Japan. Among the newest wins for Purcari are the Berry Bros & Rudd listing, the oldest distributor in UK, as well as access to Vinmonopolet, the Norwegian wine monopoly. I am confident that under the exceptional leadership of CEO Victor Bostan and Purcari's dedicated team, there will be many more successes to follow."
